INTRODUCTION

If you've been involved in evangelism for any length of time, you're well acquainted with the battle against your own "flesh" that takes place every time you plan to go out witnessing.

For me, it usually strikes in the car on the way to our "fishing hole." My husband (Dale) is usually driving, and I'm sitting in the passenger seat getting sick to my stomach. Over and over in my head, my "flesh" is shouting, "Why on earth are you making me do this again!?"

That's usually when I pull out my little pocket Bible and re-read (what I feel are) the most encouraging scriptures on evangelism. The scriptures, coupled with intense prayer, usually makes that "fleshly" side quiet down a little.

I've also included the scriptures I find myself having to use again and again in both personal witnessing and open air. In my opinion, they would be great ones to have memorized.

The very back of the book has a place for notes. This is a good place to write the names and phone numbers of your fishing team. One, for easy access... and two so that you remember to pray for them.

May God bless you abundantly as you seek to serve Him.

Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence, and there was no place for them. And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books. The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done. Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death. If anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire. - Revelation 20:11-15
